Job Description

We are seeking a highly experienced and creative Gamification Consultant to join our team. The ideal candidate will have a passion for designing and implementing engaging learning experiences through gamification. This role involves working on prestigious projects that aim to revolutionize K-12 education by integrating game-based learning methodologies. The consultant will be responsible for the entire lifecycle of educational game development, from conceptualization to execution and training.

Key Responsibilities

Game Design and Development:

- Architect, design, and develop a variety of educational games, including activity games, puzzles, board/card games, and digital games.
- Utilize various platforms such as Puzzel, Kahoot, WayGround, GimKit, Wordwall, and Raptivity and other related ones to create interactive and engaging learning modules.
- Lead the game development process, ensuring high-quality standards and timely delivery.

Game Testing and Review:

- Conduct thorough testing and review of all developed games to ensure they are effective, engaging, and free of errors.
- Gather feedback from users and stakeholders to iterate and improve game design.

Training and Facilitation:

- Facilitate game-based learning workshops and training sessions for K-12 teachers.
- Conduct demonstrations and interactive sessions for school children to showcase the power of game-based learning.

Travel and Demonstrations:

- Travel to various locations across India to conduct training sessions, workshops, and demonstrations.
- Represent IC&SR, IIT Madras at educational conferences and events.

Skills Required

Technical Skills:

- Proficiency in using gamification platforms such as Kahoot, WayGround, GimKit, Wordwall, and Raptivity. Ability to analyze research newer platforms along similar lines that emerge
- Strong skills in game architecture, game development, and game testing/review.

Facilitation Skills:

- Demonstrated ability to facilitate engaging and effective game-based learning sessions for teachers and students.

Other Requirements:

- Willingness and ability to travel extensively across India.
- Excellent communication and presentation skills.
- A passion for education and a belief in the power of gamification to transform learning.

The last date for submission of online application is 25.02.2026.
